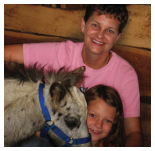
Dr. Rotigel attended Michigan State University from 1985 to 1994. She obtained a B.S. with teaching certification in Physical Science/ Biology in 1989 and a D.V.M. (Doctor of Veterinary Medicine) with Honor in 1994. She is a member of the A.V.M.A., the M.V.M.A., the S.W.M.V.M.A. and the L.G.V.M.A.

In addition to her regular clientele, Dr. Rotigel also assists local animal rescue groups such as the Kalamazoo Animal Rescue and is now assisting the Kalamazoo County Animal Services with neutering of cats pre-adoption thru the SAVE-A-CAT Program. From May 2002 thru August 2005 Dr. Rotigel assisted the Kalamazoo Humane Society Operation-Fix-It low income program by neutering nearly 4000 cats!



Dr. Rotigel lives with her family, 3 cats (Pumpkin, Lilybean and Cocomochabean), pony (Sliver), miniature horse (Chip) and Fjord horse (Luna) in Battle Creek, MI.

Besides home visits, the Visiting Vet also offers appointments while parked locally! The Visiting Vet Mobile Veterinary Clinic typically parks at the Tractor Supply Company at 6285 Gull Road in Kalamazoo (just northeast of Sprinkle Road) on Mondays and Fridays. Dr. Rotigel travels to clients as needed in the evenings and on other days of the week.

Dr. Rotigel encourages client education via longer appointments and The Visiting Vet website; www.visitingvet.info. Here, clients will find informational articles, pet health links and even a monthly email newsletter to help you keep your pets healthy and safe. Sign up for the newsletter at www.visitingvet.info.

"I have practiced in the greater Kalamazoo area since 1994. My ethic is to practice high quality Veterinary medicine with integrity, honesty and compassion. I believe the best way for me to do this for my clients is via a state of the art, custom made mobile veterinary clinic."
