Story and Photos by Hal Sanguinetti

Just about everyone has some transmission issues every so often, and while there are lots of shops to choose from, one shop stands clear of the rest - Denny's Transmissions, at 12614 N Cave Creek Rd in Phoenix. They're a family-owned & operated business that's actually been in business for over 50 years. The current owner, Shawn Harris took over the operation in June of 2016 after the previous owner wanted to retire. Shawn had actually started working in the shop when he was 8 years old, cleaning the floors after school. Now he works with his father Jeffrey and wife Eva. Some of their employees like Dale, the manager, have tons of experience - Dale's been doing this for over 30 years, so there is no shortage of knowledge on transmissions. The shop does both automatic and manual transmissions, which is somewhat unusual these days - experience makes the difference.

Whether it's a stock transmission out of a car, truck or RV, or a race transmission out of any kind of vehicle, they've got the tools and the knowledge to solve the problem.

Denny's transmissions has a reputation for good, friendly customer service. Pickup and drop off is available, and if a customer wants to wait there is wifi in the waiting room. They'll also stay late and open early if it better suits a customer's need. The shop is open Monday through Friday from 8am to 5pm, although special circumstances sometimes has them open on Saturday or Sunday to allow a customer to pickup or drop off a vehicle. Credit cards are welcome, and it's always service with a smile. If you've got a transmission problem, give Denny's transmissions a call at (602) 788-1104, and tell them AZ Extreme Motorsports sent you!
