What does this mean for our clients?

For a single senior citizen living on Social Security:

Food: $420 to $980

Clothing: $180

Golden Age: $51 to $76

The goods obtained from FPCC valued at $651 to $1,236 could offset expenses to free up about 10% of their income to be used for other necessities.

What does this mean for our clients?

For a single parent making the median income of our service area of $21,143 with 2 children ages 4 and 8:

Food: $1,125 to $2,620

Clothing: $540

Preschool: $2,000 to $3,885

Art-in-the-City: $400

Christmas: $342

The goods obtained from FPCC valued at $4,407 to $7,787 could offset expenses to free up a very significant part of their income to be used for other necessities.
